MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 30, 1855.

Cholera on the River

We learn from the Dubuque Observer that the steamer Sam. Young, Capt. Hall, arrived at that port on the 17 inst. Brought on the passengers on the Sam. Merrick, which left the steamer Keokuk and Madrid. There were, we understand, several cases of cholera on the Keokuk. Among those on board ship to St. Paul, was Gov. Gorman.

NOT CHEERED AGAIN.

We hear that Gen. Shields was not cheered by a good audience, that Gov. Samuels is to be appointed Commissioner of Minnesota Territory, in place of Willis A. Gorman, who is to leave to Colonize by way of the Big Sioux River, &c. The Colonel is now in Minnesota, and it is understood that his description of the proposed Government Chief Magistrate, in his Friday fur dle speech, will be the basis of the Democratic platform.

Wanatah.

Wanatah, The independent, energetic, faithful and praiseworthy manner in which Hon. R. S. Wilson, Esq., has discharged the duties of his official duties developing upon him, as Judge of the County Commissioners' Court, at the late session of the present municipal year, meets the unbounded confidence and gratitude of this County, and of our citizens generally; and, whereas the Hon. R. S. Wilson, while in the prompt discharge of his duty—as above, and which, of course entitled the Judge to his commendation—has been compelled to defend his rights and those of his office, against the attacks of Mr. Douglas, however, will do so well! In the case, though the predominant vote 346 Dollars is equivalent to the basis of the treasure of which he is the depositary, is only a quarter of time. It will come at last.

Brown Among the Rabbits at LaSalle.—The celebrated rabbits, and the exhibition of the county on the other side of the river, are so situate to have a bridge at that point, and on Friday evening held a large meeting to take the matter into consideration. The result of the meeting was that it was determined to urge the C. C. & R. I. Co. to push their bridge, and build a corner on the south side of the river at the foot of La Salle street, and that the Know Nothings were requested to unite with the company upon the subject, who also to report to a meeting to be held on the 20th inst.

Dixon.—John F. Kimball, an old and highly esteemed citizen of Evansville, and well known in the trading public as a Commission Merchant, died on the 19th, after a few days' illness. He left home but a few days before his death, for the benefit of his health, and was accompanied by his family. The deceased was a native of Vermont, but for many years a resident of Evansville, where he was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Mr. Kimball's remains were brought to this city on the 21st inst., and were followed to the grave by the largest concourse of citizens that ever attended a funeral in this city. The Masonic fraternity, of which the deceased was a member, performed the last sad rites over the remains of their departed brother.

Mr. Kimball was a man of strictly honorable character, and his death is a loss to the community in which he lived.

Mr. Kimball's family have the sympathy of the whole community in their affliction.

Evansville Journal.

Mr. Kimball was a brother of Mr. Kimball, of the Chicago Board of Trade

CITY OF CHICAGO.

LOCAL MATTERS.

INCREASE OF THE POLICE.

We understand that the draft of an ordinances for the increase and regulation of the Police force of the city, is in the hands of the Committee on the same, and will be brought before the Council at an early date.

Our Police force though composed of the very best kind of men, is entirely too small for the accomodation of a city so populous as ours, and there can hardly be a doubt as to the propriety of its increase. We do not know whether the ordinance makes any provision for uniforming the police, but we hope that also will be attended to. Let us, in this matter, learn wisdom from the experience of older cities.

Amusements this Morning.

Theater, Dearborn Street, near Washington. A good bill is promised for this evening. Miss Susan Denin as "Mrs Haller," and Mr. McFarland as "the Stranger." In that unfathomable play entitled "The Stranger; or Misanthropy and Repentance." After which the romantic drama "The Queen of the Arbuest," in which Miss Denin and Mr. Myers will take leading parts.

Temperance Hall, Randolph street, near Clark. Metropolitan Opera Troupe.

Circus, corner of Wabash Avenue and Lake street.

Madame DeVries.

We are pleased to learn that this distinguished and favorite singer will shortly give our concert in our city. She has concluded a very fine engagement in St. Louis, where, notwithstanding the many counter attractions, her houses were large and select.

Madame DeVries is acknowledged to be one of the best and most charming vocalists in America.

Dramatic Readings.

We are happy to announce that Mrs. Macready, a lady of much ability in her profession, has arrived in our city, and will, during the course the present week, give a series of Dramatic Readings at Metropolitan Hall, of which due notice will appear. Mrs. Macready has read with great successes all the eastern cities. The Boston Atlas says "her success has been unqualified since the days of Fanny Kemble." And the New York Evening Mirror speaks of her as a "highly gifted and accomplished actress" and says "though young in years in the profession, she exhibits the power of a finished artist with the most winning beauty and grace.

Roger Williams Insurance Company.

We direct attention this morning to the published statement of the Roger Williams Insurance Company of Providence, Rhode Island, E. H. Rice, Esq., Agent at Chicago, made to comply with the recent act passed by our Legislature to regulate the agencies of foreign Insurance Companies. This is the second company that has complied with this act of the past year. We will do well to remember that no foreign companies which have failed to follow the requisition of the law have had the power to issue policies of insurance after the 1st of May. The capital stock of the Roger Williams Company of one hundred thousand dollars, its assets are one hundred and forty-seven thousand dollars and its liabilities but about three thousand dollars. Its officers and directors are men of high financial standing and sound reputation. Its agent here, E. H. Rice, Esq., is a gentleman too well and favorably known to demand any endorsement from us. The office of the company will be, after the 1st of May, in the Masonic Temple buildings on Dearborn street.

A Phenomenon.

The friends of the Prohibitory Law can do no wiser thing than to subscribe for a few thousand copies of the Anti-Prohibitionist, published by an association of rum-sellers in this city, and distribute them broadcast throughout the State. In the end that the people may see upon what flimsy and ridiculous pretenses the Law is assailed. Here is one dollar for fifty copies. Who will make fifty more?

POLICE COURT.—Before Milner.

Chicago, Saturday, April 28, 1855.

Martin McIntire, drunk, fined $3.

Joseph Ellerson, driving on bridge when the swing was up, fined $5.

Dewitt Rupell, drunk, fined $3.

Wm. Waters, larceny, held to bail in $300.

Alexander Walton, drunk and assault and battery, fined $5.

Attempt to Commit Suicide.

On Saturday morning a young woman named Prentiss got out attempted to drown herself and child in the river near Kinzie street bridge. She was, however, rescued from the water before she succeeded in accomplishing her purpose. She is supposed to be insane.

THE MORRIS HOUSE.

After the public Press of a city there is no other sure measure of its excellence than the Public Houses. A well filled journal and a well spread table are pleasing results but rare happiness. The House that can always furnish these, (we vouch for the table and the Tribune can do) in connection with savory fluxions, prompt, gentle, ready attendance, deserves to be the resort of whatever may be desirable. Such a home we have met and hugely enjoyed in courteous and abundant hospitality, in the Morris House of the sister city of St. Louis. In its appointments it is excellent, and the lover of the table would content are epicures; its principal dish a peasant, and its appointments from host to hall boy are eminently kind and active. The weary traveler repairing unfed to its hospitable residence with gratified palate, and attended if if he were his hosts special guest, speaks favorably of the city, and his pen records his great ease. In this way has St. Louis been benefited by her Host, and foremost among them by the Morris House. There is no better host than our friend ANDREWS. The head clerk, Mr. ——, is the right man in the right place, and is anticipating your very wishes; and the second clerk, QUIRK, is a tip-top capital fellow. He is "yours devotedly" as long as you stay, and then you have his best wishes home. Try the MORRIS and prove it.

To Lumber Dealers.

We call attention to the card of Messrs. Rogers & Brown, Lumber Merchants. They have purchased the yard and lumber of S. Linn, Esq., and will continue the business. Mr. Rogers we have been acquainted with a number of years, and can recommend him as a gentleman. Mr. Brown comes here from Beloit, and is highly spoken of by the citizens of that place.

Godey for May.

W. W. Danenhower, 127 Lake street, have received Godey's Lady's Book for the month of May. It is a very good number and embellished by embellished.

The Chicago Riot.

The friends of sobriety and good order in Chicago have had in the late whisky demonstration, a slight foretaste of what is to be expected from a bold and rigorous attempt to crush the Maine Liquor Law there. Next to New York city, Chicago will be the most difficult place in the country in which to enforce the law. The rowdyism and so much from the real strength of the enemy, but from the fact that rum and its immediate appliances for evil, have for so long held in tyranny there. A recent count showed nearly two thousand men in that town by themselves who sold without a shadow of restraint, and connected with many of those shops are brothels and gambling houses. Indeed, in the whole city of Chicago, on the Sabbath last summer, we saw faro and gambling in the saloons, with doors and windows open to the street, so as to be visible to all passing by, and this, too, on the principal streets of the city.

To break up the liquor traffic in Chicago, will be one of the moral triumphs of the age, and we have no doubt it will be done. The Mayor of that city just elected is a bold and true man who will be his duty at all hazards, and there are plenty of reformers there ready to help him in fully executing the law. The city must be shut, but the law will be enforced we have no doubt.—Providence Daily Tribune.

ILLINOIS CATTLE BEST EAST.—

The Quincy Whig states that Messrs. & Jamison & Son recently took eighty head of cattle from their farm in Ellington township, Adams county, to New York. They drove them to Galesburg, and there took them on the cars to Chicago, and thence over the Michigan Southern road to Toledo, from which they were carried by way of Erie and Dunkirk to New York. The time from Galesburg to Chicago was one day and a night; from Chicago to Toledo forty-two hours; from Toledo to Dunkirk forty-two hours from Dunkirk to New York forty-eight hours. The entire cost of taking them from there to New York averaged $19 per head, and they were sold at $71 per hundred, net, clear of commissions.
